

As a licensed Amateur radio Operator (AC6V) I am in favor of dropping the Morse Code testing requirement from all classes of Amateur licenses, but recomend more difficult written tests.